The BGL South Family Stand

BGL Family Stand Area Name Change

We'd like to inform you of some area name changes we will be making to the BGL Family Stand...

Why are we doing this?

When the stand was built back in 1996, the stand was split up into zones. These zones meet in the middle of blocks meaning you can be sat together in different zones. When selecting seats on our online system, it can be misleading as these seats appear to be on an aisle and separated from each other as they are shown in a different area.

What do the letters/numbers stand for?

The first letter stands for "South". The second letter is upper (U) or lower (L) tier and the number is the block number.

How will this affect me?

If you are renewing your season ticket online, you will not see a difference until you receive your new season card with the new area name printed on it. The row and seat number of your seat will not be affected.

When will these changes come into effect?

The area changes will be in place from June 2018.
